29th-30th Nov 2012, Paris, France

The Strategic Partnership for the Mediterranean Sea Large Marine Ecosystem (MedPartnership) is a collective effort of leading organizations (regional, international, non governmental, etc.) and countries sharing the Mediterranean Sea towards the protection of the marine and coastal environment of the Mediterranean. The MedPartnership is being led by UNEP/MAP and the World Bank and is financially supported by the Global Environment Facility (GEF), and other donors, including the EU and all participating countries.

The MedPartnership works through two lines of actions: technical and policy support led by UNEP/MAP (Regional Project) and project financing led by the World Bank (Investment Fund/Sustainable MED).

As part of this project, UNESCO Chair INWEB coordinator Prof. J. Ganoulis will attend an Expert meeting on Policy, Aquifer and groundwater Legal and Institutional issues , organized by UNESCO – IHP, and held in Paris, France from 29th -30th November 2012.
